Is Charlie Swan Moving?

Well at first glance it looks like it could be true. What we know as the “Home of the Swans” has a for sale sign in front of it. The gracious homeowners that let us put their home on the Twilight tour are moving and now are hoping that somebody will buy the house and love it as much as them and the thousands of fans that have posed in front* of it. Those fans imagine Bella upstairs, with Edward not too far away. And possibly Jacob patrolling nearby, watching out for Bella too.

Therefore maybe the new owners will let the “Home of the Swans” sign reside once again out front, for all to enjoy. Or maybe someone will buy it and turn it into a Bed & Breakfast, similar to the Cullen House (Miller Tree Inn). So while it might appear that the Swan family is moving, in our hearts they will always be the ones that reside on K Street.

For now, the Swan Home sign is on display at the TrueValue—Forks City Hardware store.
